

ARTICLE APPEARED

ON PAGE

103

BROADCASTING
22 April, 1985

CIA complaint. National Association of Broadcasters has joined ranks of those asking that FCC dismiss CIA's fairness complaint against ABC without reaching complaint's merits. "First Amendment case law and its consistent application indicate that the First Amendment bars government agencies, such as the CIA, from filing fairness complaints with the commission," NAB said in filing at FCC.